

30 questions for #Interreg30 | Third 10 in the Quiz 3

1. Where can information about all Interreg projects be found?
 - a. Keep.eu
 - b. Interreg.eu
 - c. Interact.net

2. How many people are in the Monitoring Committee of the Estonia-Latvia programme?
 - a. 20
 - b. 36
 - c. 41

3. New Estonian-Latvian and Latvian-Estonian dictionaries were published in 2015. How many words does each dictionary contain?
 - a. 60 000
 - b. 40 000
 - c. 55 000

4. What is the mission of the Estonia-Latvia programme?
 - a. neighborly cooperation
 - b. linking Estonia-Latvia
 - c. making citizens happier than EU average

5. What is the length of the longest project supported by the Estonia-Latvia programme?
 - a. 36 months
 - b. 40 months
 - c. 55 months

6. In this town, it is planned to set up a pedestrian bridge with swings across the river, a central area with a stage and a children's playground, pedestrian trails, and a cultural and sporting activity centre. In which border town is this project being implemented?
 - a. Ainaži - Ikla
 - b. Valka – Valga
 - c. Alūksne

7. In which year was the first Latvian and Estonian Foreign Ministries' Language Award handed?
 - a. 2008.
 - b. 2009.
 - c. 2012.

8. What are the names of the towns after which the Peace Treaties between Estonia and Russia and Latvia and Russia in 1920 are named?
- Tallinn and Riga
 - Tartu and Riga
 - Valga and Valka
9. Which of these unusual sports has been invented by the Estonians?
- Sepak Takraw – feet volleyball
 - Kiiking – extreme swinging
 - Showdown – table hockey with eyes closed

The correct answer – Kiiking, was invented by Estonian Ado Kosks in 1993. The aim is to rotate the swing 360°. The longer the swing, the harder it is to do.

10. What were the Riga Central Market pavilions originally used for?
- They were once airship hangars
 - They were previously located at Riga airport, but were transferred to the centre
 - They were used as warehouses

The correct answer is that, in the past, these pavilions were hangars of airships, in which Zeppelins (aircraft) were held by the German army.